

Issue status (item state information) in the Research Library of Tomsk State University E-catalogue

The E-catalogue contains information of an item availability at request time. An item state (issue status) is updated online.

Status	Description
Uncatalogued	The item is at the Acquisition and Cataloguing Department and is being prepared for the readers' use. Currently, the item is not available for borrowing.
Worn out	The item can not be restored; it is being prepared for exclusion from the library stock and is not available for use.
Available	The item can be borrowed at the delivery desk, in a reading room or ordered from the book depository.
Borrowed until ...	The item is borrowed until the specified date
Booked	The item is borrowed and ordered by another reader previously joined the waiting list.
E-requested	The item is requested online.
Requested	The item is requested by a handwritten request.
At the restoration	The item is being restored (binding, disinfection). The item is temporarily unavailable.
Unknown location	The item is not in its place of storage, real location is being identified.
Lost by readers	The item has been lost by a reader.
Outdated	The item doesn't meet academic discipline requirements anymore. This status is assigned by a teacher's official opinion. The item is not available for borrowing.
Lost	The item is lost under unclear circumstances. The item is being prepared for exclusion from the library stock.