

Journals in the Research Library of Tomsk State University

The RL journal stock consists of printed and electronic items.

Journals in electronic form are available in Russian and international databases TSU RL is subscribed to. The TSU E-library grants access to the TSU periodicals published by the TSU Publishing House (20+ items).

Any journal in the database may be accessed via any reading room workstation, as well as from users' personal computers.

Printed journals stock consists of 4000+ Russian and international titles dedicated to various fields of knowledge from 18th century up to the present. You can find information about library stock journals in the E-catalogue (<http://chamo.lib.tsu.ru>) and in the electronic version of the card catalogue (<http://slic.tsu.ru>).

Journals are stored at the book depository of the Research Library. You can book them by submitting online or written request in the 24/7 Information Centre, then get booked items at the delivery desk to work with them in reading rooms.

Some titles are available in the Research Commons, new acquisitions are exhibited.